ABOUT ZINGERMAN'S

WHAT IS ZINGERMAN'S, ANYWAY?

Zingerman's is a family of small food-related companies in Ann Arbor, Michigan. We focus on traditionally made full flavored foods. We are funky, fun and sometimes a little strange. Most of all, we love to share great food with everyone.

Zingerman's Deli opened in March of 1982 with a staff of two, a small selection of great tasting specialty foods, a host of traditional Jewish dishes and a short sandwich menu.

Today our deli is known as a mecca for great food. Zingerman's is now several distinct businesses full of artisan bakers, cheesemakers, chefs, candy makers and coffee roasters.

ZINGERMAN'S RETURNLESS GUARANTEE

Customer service is our passion, our charge and our mission. If you experience a problem with any of our products, customer service, shipping—or even if you just plain don't like how it tastes—please let us know. We'll do whatever it takes to make it right for you. We never ask you or the recipients to return anything so you can shop worry-free. Whatever the problem we'll fix it immediately, no questions asked.

AWESOME OFFICE SNACK SUPPLIES

Feeds fifteen or more in a way they will not forget. Remotely host the best office party since that time someone snuck a magnum of Veuve Clicquot in the break room. Macy's Cheesesticks, Spanish Chocolate Covered Figs, crispy Palmiers, Virginia Diner Peanuts, Freshly Roasted Zingerman's Coffee ground for drip, Almond Biscotti from Antonio Mattei, Anise & Olive Oil Tortas, Apricot Rugelach Cookies, Spiced Pecans, four personal-sized bags of Zingerman's Sea Salt Potato Chips, a vegan almond & coconut Almondinger Cookie, a Chocolate Chunk Cookie, and ten Brownie Bites.

The Weekender Gift Boxes

Our top selling gift box for civilians is, perhaps not surprisingly, our top seller for businesses too. We have this crazy idea that we should send the same food to our client as we would to grandma. The problem is, with most business gift companies you can't. The food you find for corporate gifts is drastically different than what humans normally eat. It's got dumbed down flavor. Shrunken little jars of mysterious goo. Scary old popcorn. Waxy chocolate.

The Weekender suffers none of those problems. It's packed full of foods I keep at home on a regular basis and sweets I like to eat when I'm in the mood. They're all full sized versions, full of flavor. When you send this to a client it never looks like you skimmed, never looks like you cut corners.

Cinn-ful Cinnamon Rolls

Almost anyone can make a cinnamon roll smell good while it's baking, even among the cell phone kiosks at the mall. Unfortunately, most have little more than aroma to offer. You won't taste much beyond sugar and cinnamon. The real challenge is to fashion a cinnamon roll that tastes as good as it smells. These fit the bill. Warm them up, break one open and put your nose up close. You'll smell sweet butter, Indonesian cinnamon, real vanilla. But the real treat is next. Take one bite. That's all you'll need to forget the litany of cinnamon roll disappointments life has dealt you. With serving instructions.

HOLIDAY TREATS

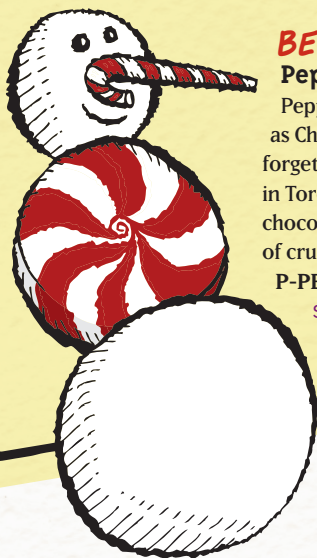

BAKED BY ZINGERMAN'S Zingerman's Stollen

Our delicious German-style holiday cake is a long-standing Zingerman's holiday tradition for folks looking for unique dessert ideas, great gifts and fine food for weekend brunch. If you haven't had stollen and wonder what all the fuss is about, just take a look at the ingredients: real butter, Bacardi® white rum, glacéed lemons, oranges, cherries, fresh lemon and orange zest, fresh lemon juice, almonds, golden raisins, Red Flame raisins, real vanilla and our very scent-sual Indonesian cinnamon. Toasted and spread with a little sweet butter, it's delicious and is perhaps rivaled only by our own coffee cake as a great afternoon snack cake. Each stollen comes wrapped in a muslin bag. It serves 6-8 and, barring extensive snacking, lasts for weeks.

BETTERMENT WITH PEPPERMINT Peppy Peppermint Bark

Peppermint bark has been a Christmas staple for my family as much as Christmas cookies have, and I know I'm not alone. While I'll never forget Christmas as a kid, this peppermint bark from Chocolate Signatures in Toronto has overwritten all those childhood bark memories. Dark Belgian chocolate is topped with white chocolate (that actually tastes good), coated in a layer of crushed real peppermint candies. Comes in a hot red tin.

THE COFFEE CAKE THAT CHANGED THE GAME

"DUE TO CURRENT BUSINESS TRENDS 99% OF OUR AGENDA TIME WILL BE SPENT EATING COFFEE CAKE."

OUR BEST SELLERS

Coffee cakes have been our best selling gift since we started mailing food in the early 1990s. Having tried a truckload of coffee cakes in the past two decades I can say quite honestly that I haven't tasted one I like better. I think the same goes for a lot of our customers—many folks return year after year to send this gift and this gift only. It's substantial, it's honest, it's straightforward, and it's really good. I guarantee you really can taste the difference.

OUR MOST POPULAR
GIFT FOR A REASON!

THE ICING IS NOT ON THE CAKE

Zingerman's coffee cake is made without icing. This makes it look like an odd-ball compared to most coffee cakes out there. Nothing against icing—I like a cupcake as much as the next person—but too many times icing is a ruse. It's an atmospheric distraction. It diverts your attention from the sub-par ingredients that make the mass below. Plus, for many folks, me included, it's too sweet. Our coffee cake tastes like rich sour cream, butter, toasted walnuts and cinnamon. There's just enough sweetness, which makes it go down easily, especially with coffee.

WHAT ABOUT THAT PAN?

You can't make a Zingerman's coffee cake without a bundt-style pan, the pan with the hole in the middle. It conducts heat to the interior of the cake—if the hole wasn't there, the middle would stay raw and collapse in a soggy puddle. The bundt pan we know was created by Nordic Ware in Minnesota in the 1950s at the request of Rose Joshua and Fannie Schanfield, two members of Minneapolis's Hadassah Jewish women's group, who were nostalgic for dense European cakes.

VIRTUAL EVENT, REAL FOOD

PRIVATE, CUSTOM VIRTUAL EVENTS FOR YOUR TEAM

Make work +74% more exciting

Thank your crew, break up the next four-hour conference call about EBIDTA, or—dare we say it?—perhaps even have a bit of fun with your cohort.

How it works

- 1 Our Virtual Event Concierge will work with you to pick your time and date, the foods you'd like, and help coordinate all of the logistics.
- 2 From our experience, it usually takes at least two weeks from the point of "Let's do this!" to having the event.
- 3 We usually keep each hour-long event to less than 50 people. If you have more than that we're happy to host multiple sessions.
- 4 Your participants will receive their food and any pre-event instructions a couple of days ahead of the big event.
- 5 Our host and chat moderator will guide you through the virtual event where you will taste, learn about, and perhaps even cook great food.
- 6 Price is the cost of the food for each person, plus a $300 host fee.

VIRTUAL EVENT IDEAS

TASTE CHEESE

A cheese tasting with a theme of your choice. We can explore European classics, British territorials, our favorite new American Cheeses—or even cheeses we make ourselves in Ann Arbor.

Each person receives 4 half-pound hand cut cheeses, Zingerman's bread or crackers, and a super tasty cheese accompaniment.

MAKE REUBENS

The sandwich that put Zingerman's on the map. Our Reuben was, is, and forever will be our most popular sandwich. We'll guide your team through a world class course in sandwich making.

Each person receives all of the sandwich fixings: a loaf of Zingerman's Jewish Rye, sliced Corned Beef, sliced Emmentaler Swiss cheese, Zingerman's potato chips, Cole-slaw, Sauerkraut, Russian dressing, garlicky pickles, and Magic Brownie Bites.

YOU CHOOSE

A completely custom event designed just for you centered around the foods you choose. We can cook together, go through a guided tasting, explored something new or delve deep into something familiar.

Chocolates, baked goods, pasta nights, European adventures or anything else you desire...just let us know and we will create your perfect event. We know our foods inside and out and can make your event entertaining—and educational.
